

The 11th Conference of the Association of Parliamentary Librarians of Asia and the Pacific

April 26-28, 2017

National Assembly Library

Republic of Korea

Conference Theme

Moving Towards a Big Data Era: the Role of Parliamentary Libraries and Research Services

Wednesday 26 April

Venue: 1st Conference Hall, 1st floor of the Members' Office Building

09:30-10:00 Registration

10:00-10:30 Opening Ceremony

- Opening address by Dr. Eun Chul Lee, Chief Librarian of the National Assembly Library
- Welcoming address by Dr. Dianne Heriot, APLAP President
- Congratulatory address by Hon. Jaecheol Shim, Deputy Speaker of the Korean National Assembly

10:30-11:20 Keynote speech by Ms. Donna Scheeder, IFLA President

11:30-11:40 Moving for the Tour of the National Assembly Library

Venue: Members' Entrance, National Assembly Library Building

11:40-12:30 Tour of the National Assembly Library

Venue: Central Garden, 3rd floor of the National Assembly Library Building

12:30-14:00 Lunch (buffet)

Venue: Main Conference Hall, 4th floor of the National Assembly Library Building

Chair: Dr. Fiona Allen, Australia

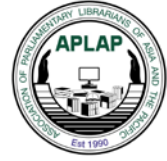

14:00-15:20 Session 1: Environmental scanning – information technologies, trends, and impacts

- Sam Oh, Professor, Sungkyunkwan University, Korea
DaaS (Data as a Service) for National Assembly Libraries
- Seungyun Lee, Electronics and Telecommunications Research Institute, Korea
Technology Trends with Digital Transformation

discussion with questions

15:20-15:40 Focus 39

- Preyanuch Klovutiwat, Thailand
The Most Precious Data of Thailand
- Toshiyuki Yamada, Japan
Brains of the legislature - Legislative Research Service of the National Diet Library

15:40-16:00 Coffee break

16:00-17:20 Session 1 (cont'd)

- Dr. Dianne Heriot, Australia
The Promises and Pitfalls of Big Data
- Leiwia Moli, Vanuatu
Information Technology and Environment Changes in the Parliament Library and within the Parliament of Vanuatu with Challenges Encountered
- Sunil Kesari, Urmila Sharma, India
Founding and development of Library and Research Services of the Parliament of India in the latest technologies

discussion with questions

17:40-17:55 Moving for the dinner venue

Venue: Sarangjae

18:00-19:30 Welcome dinner hosted by Dr. Eun Chul Lee, Chief Librarian of the National Assembly Library

Thursday 27 April

Venue: Main Conference Hall, 4th floor of the National Assembly Library Building

Chair: Dr. Changsu Choe, Korea

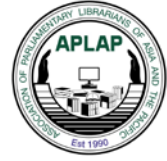

09:00-09:30 Focus 39

- Dongmi Seo, Korea
About a report entitled "Comparative Research Report Related To A Bill"
- Chris Cliff, New Zealand
The New Zealand Parliament's Library and Research Service
- Sochetra Kim, Cambodia
How General Research Department works to Provide Support Services to the Senate

09:30-11:00 Session 2: Targeting customers for better services

- Joonhwa Jung, Korea
Big Data Utilization Strategy for Parliamentary Libraries and Research Services
- Catherine Lorimer, Australia
A sea of 'parliamentary big data': collaborative approaches to its navigation by the Australian Parliamentary Library Research Service
- Jiwon Park, Korea
Comparative Legal Information Services targeting the Members: the experience of the National Assembly Library of Korea

discussion with questions

11:00-11:20 Coffee break

11:20-11:50 APLAP meeting

11:50-13:00 Lunch (lunch box)

Venue: Main Conference Hall, 4th floor of the National Assembly Library Building

Chair: Ms. Emma Rey, Philippines

13:00-13:30 Focus 39

- Jeonga Park, Eunsol Shim, Korea
Human Network Service
- Nercy Syne-Simina, Federated States of Micronesia
The Congress and the Congressional Library of Micronesia
- Emma M. Rey, Divina S. Medina, Rosemarie D. Balidoy, Philippines
All in One House: Library, Archives and Museum of the House of Representatives

13:30-15:00 Session 3: Promoting services – big data applications and practical issues

- Dr. Fiona Allen, Australia
Big Data and Knowledge
- P.H.N. Premasiri, S. L. Siyath Ahemed, Sri Lanka
The Big Data Era: The role of Sri Lankan Parliamentary Library and Research Services
- Mikyung Song, Jieun Lim, Korea
Towards a Big Data-as-a-service for Legislative Research in the National Assembly Library of Korea
- Asha Kumar, Fiji
Recent Developments at the Parliamentary Library of Fiji

discussion with questions

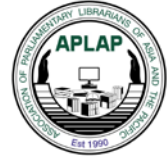

15:00-15:10 Coffee break

15:15-16:30 Session 3 (cont'd)

- Mustika Wati, Tenny Rosanti, Indonesia
E-Kliping as an implementing technology for decision making
- Mele Vaega, Samoa
How to prevent and preserve all archive materials and resources
- Chris Cliff, New Zealand
Outside the box: a non-library technological solution for research service management

discussion with questions

16:30 Closing

Venue: Main Hall, 1st floor of the National Assembly Library

16:30-17:30 Experiencing Korean Culture: Making hanji - traditional Korean paper

17:30-18:00 Moving for the dinner venue

Venue: Central Park Ballroom, 15th floor of the Kensington Hotel

18:00-19:30 APLAP dinner

Friday 28 April

Venue: Members' Entrance, National Assembly Library Building

09:20-09:40 Moving for the Tour of the National Assembly Plenary Chamber

Venue: Plenary Chamber, National Assembly Building

09:40-10:10 Tour of the National Assembly Plenary Chamber

10:10-11:15 Moving for Changdeokgung Palace (transportation will be provided and a lunch box will be distributed in the bus)

Venue: Changdeokgung Palace, Northern Seoul

11:15-12:35 Tour of Changdeokgung Palace

- Changdeokgung Palace was built during the Joseon Dynasty, and is an outstanding example of palace architecture and Eastern design.